The Man with the "Grasshopper Mind"

You know this man as well as you know YOURSELF. His mind nibbles at EVERYTHING and masters NOTHING.

At home in the evening he tunes in the radio—gets tired of it—then glances through a MAGAZINE—can't get interested. Finally, unable to CONCENTRATE on anything, he either goes to the MOVIES or FALLS ASLEEP in his chair.

At the OFFICE he always takes up the EASIEST thing first, puts it down when it gets HARD, and starts something else. JUMPS from ONE THING TO ANOTHER all the time!

There are thousands of these PEOPLE WITH GRASSHOPPER MINDS. In fact they are the very people who do the world's MOST TIRESOME TASKS—and get but a PITTANCE for their work. They do the world's CLERICAL WORK, and routine drudgery. Day after day, week after week, month after month, year after year—ENDLESSLY—they HANG ON to the jobs that are smallest-salaried, longest-bored, least interesting, and poorest-futured!

If YOU have a "grasshopper mind" you know that this is TRUE. And you know WHY it is true. A BRAIN THAT BALKS at sticking to ONE THING FOR MORE THAN A FEW MINUTES surely cannot be depended upon to get you anywhere in your YEARS of life!

The TRAGEDY of it all is this: you know that RIGHT NOW you are merely jumping HERE AND THERE. Yet you also know you have WITHIN YOU the intelligence, the earnestness, and the ability that can take you right to the high place you want to reach in life!

What is WRONG? WHAT'S holding you back?

Just one fact—one SCIENTIFIC fact. That is all. And when you know what it IS, then you can easily learn how to apply it; make it help to carry you STEADILY, POSITIVELY, AND DIRECTLY to prosperity and independence.

The fact is one which has been PROVED and stated by the world's foremost scientists and psychologists. You are only a fraction as successful as you COULD be! Why? BECAUSE, as Science says, you are using only a fraction of your real BRAIN-POWER!

A fraction of his brain is all the AVERAGE person uses. He is paid for a fraction of what he really possesses because that is all he actually USES. The remainder lies dormant. The longer it is unused, the harder it becomes to use it. For the mind is like a muscle. It grows in power through exercise and use. It weakens and deteriorates with idleness.

What can you DO about it? That is the question you are asking yourself. The answer is FELMANISM. FELMANISM will teach you the secret of self-confidence, of a strong will, of a powerful memory, of unflagging concentration. It tells you how to acquire directive powers, how to train your imagination (the greatest force in the world), how to make quick, accurate decisions, how to reason logically—in short, how to make your brain an instrument of successful POWER. It tells you how to liquidate the negative qualities like forgetfulness, brain fog, inertia, indecision, self-consciousness, nervousness, aimless wandering, lack of system, procrastination, etc., etc.

Men like Arthur Edgar Willson, Sir Harry Lauder, Prince Charles of Sweden, Jerome K. Jerome, the famous merchant, Major General Sir Frederick Maurice, Admiral Lord Beveland, Frank P. Walsh, Chairman of the National War Labor Board, and hundreds of others equally famous, have gained this simple method of increasing your brain power. OVER 750,000 OTHERS PRAISE IT.

Now...for only $1...YOU can TEST Pelmanism

Can FELMANISM help you? For the first time you can PROVE to YOURSELF the POWER of FELMANISM by taking this complete TEST COURSE.

The new test course is called "The Pelman Course in Mental Training." It consists of 10 books, each one a complete lesson! The complete test course will be sent to you for only $1 or you may have one single lesson for 10c.

"Scientific Mind Training," a 44-page book about FELMANISM in detail will be included, FREE.

Thousands who read this announcement will DO NOTHING about it. The INITIATIVE and WILL POWER to ACT may be lacking! But there are many others who will FREE themselves from the mire of INERTIA! They will be better, stronger, and more successful. TAKE SOME ACTION to improve their lives!

Don't continue to GAMBLE that YOUR future will be bright whether or not you DO anything about it! Mail the coupon today—NOW!—The Pelman Institute of America, Dept. 728, Parkside Bldg., New Rochelle, N. Y.

Advice From Men Who Won Fame in War-Time!

MAJOR GENERAL SIR FREDERICK MAURICE
Chief of British Military Academy
"No man thinks of his future unless he has first mastered his mind. The PELMAN Course for mental training is the only one that will make him master his mind as he masters his body through mental or physical training."

FRANK P. WALSH
Former Chairman, National War Labor Board
"I cannot think of you HOW and MAINTAIN you do it. I am a doubtful man, but I am a believer in the PELMAN Course as a whole is a wonderful system for the mind."

ADMIRAL LORD BEVELAND
England's Best-Loved "Sea-Dog"
"I have seen the PELMAN Course from experience in the Naval Service... a valuable mental aid, and the performing of the mind necessary and mental acuity mental material."

ON OUR COVER

Fresh angle on angling is newly-invented sport called archery-fishing, fittingly designed for aquanauts who have hoisted of halting ordinary books with wriggly worms. Especially constructed "fishing arrows" obviously requires no bait, expands immediately after penetration, so shaft won't slip out.

Presty University of California Co-ed Kay Paige (above) demonstrates equipment.

DEFENSE FOR VICTORY

Notoriously packed with war-working girl receptionists, filing clerks, typists, comptometer operators, living five and more to a room in overcrowded boarding houses, with few, if any, wholesome recreational outlets, the nation's capital offers masher, sex maniacs a fertile field of exploitation.

College girls preparing to join their defense-working sisters, read newspaper accounts of all-too-frequent attacks on fair government employees homeward bound from late assignments, became discouraged at the prospect of life in strange surroundings.

To combat the situation, co-eds were first to hit upon Jiu-jitsu as necessary supplemental training to courses preparing them for jobs which will take them away from home.

On pages 16, 17, 18 and 19 of this issue, Hunter College's Florence Fitzgerald shows how principles of Japanese-invented art of Judo (or Jiu-jitsu) are applied in warding off unexpected attacks by assailants of large stature, powerful physique.

CO-EDS strongly recommends intensive study of this scientific method of self-defense to all young women who have occasion to travel alone.

METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYERS
LION'S ROAR

Published in this space
every month

The greatest star of the screen!

April showers bring Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer flowers.

One is a daffodil and the other a daffy-down-dilly.

"I Married An Angel" and "Rio Rita".

In the former Nelson Eddy is the "I" and Jeanette MacDonald is the "Angel".

But in the latter Abbott is not "Rio" and Costello is not "Rita".

These are two excellent starring combinations and two excellent pictures.

Anita Loos—a nester screen writer we never knew—made "I Married An Angel" into a photoplay.

She had as a basis the celebrated Broadway (and points west) stage success produced by Dwight Deere Wiman.

This was a musical adaptation by Rodgers and Hart of the play by Vassary James.

W. S. Van Dyke II directed. And an adroit job, too. He has missed none of the charm.

The cast is one to cast your eye on. The melodies will haunt.

The idea: Nelson Eddy, disillusioned with the quirks of matrimony, asks for an angel. Heaven obliges. She arrives wings and all.

The entertainment is down-to-earth.

Getting down-to-mirth, consider "Rio Rita".

This is the biggest enterprise the King Zanies have ever grasped.

Abbott and Costello are their funniest. The film is all theirs.

But one or two renowned and attractive personalities augment the proceedings.

You can't mention Kathryn Grayson or John Carroll.

"Bud" and "Lou" in their first big Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer opus will have you rolling in the aisles.

So let's go rolling down to "Rio Rita".

ATO CHAPTER'S STORY BOOK BALL

U. OF NEBRASKA GREEKS MEET GREEKS AT SHINDIG

UNIVERSITY of Nebraska's local Gamma Theta chapter of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity threw its second Story Book ball, this year, on first floor of Lincoln's Cornhusker Hotel, according to custom requiring active brothers to sponsor gala campus event in alternate years. Only if lodge treasury is unable to stand the financial strain are Omegas excused from honoring the tradition, an unthinkable state of affairs.

ATO members (old-grad alumni came trooping back to the campus for festivities, some with wives) and guests (invitations went to every house on Fraternity Row) dressed as well-known characters out of best-selling novels, four-star movies, hit plays, magazine ads, or caricatured internationally and nationally known celebrities. Famed ATO alumni are: former Ambassadors Norman H. Davis, Robert W. Bingham, former Governor of Puerto Rico Gen. Blanton Winship, Gen. R. L. Bullard, Author Irving Bacheller.

After disposing of wraps, guests first crawled on hands and knees through hole in fence (see below), then coasted down steep waxed slide (see left) in order to reach hall room floor where party was held.

Popular figures present by proxy were Sonja Henie, Walt Disney's Dopey, Marlene Dietrich, Harpo Marx, and comic strip's Daisy Mae and Li'l Abner, Superman, others.

Hawaiian Dancer Marjorie Smith emerges from hole in prop fence, all tangled up in grass skirt from crawling on hands and knees. To reach dance floor, she had to negotiate slide.

Gloria Mardis and Darrel Devoe as Painted Doll and Wooden Soldier. Story Book ball is given every other year by local chapter of Nebraska University's Alpha Tau Omega fraternity at Lincoln.

Prizes for most effective costumes went to pretty Betty Jo Lendley and dapper Bob Smith, who received ovation for unusually well performed Apache dance.

Oldtime Kelly Springfield Two-To-Retire ad was posed by pajamaed Pat Herminghaus and Jim Critchfield. Pat was one of first of her sex assigned role in 1941 Kessel Klub vanity show, previously restricted to male undergraduates. She's excellent dancer, was cast as Mexican dancing girl in last year's musical comedy entitled Toros del Torro.

"Gosh! Was I gypped on this book!!"

Barnyard props for Rutgers University's New Jersey College for Women's Barnwarmin' were obtained from affiliated agricultural school. Here Bob Johnson helps Coed Lee Purcell to feet after sitting out dance on genuine straw.

SQUARE DANCE ROUNDS OUT PROM WEEK

MILD HORSEPLAY FEATURES RUTGERS UNIVERSITY BARNWARMIN'

UNWILLING to take time out from University-sponsored defense classes in order to rehearse and stage annual Junior Show, traditional highlight of Prom Week at Rutgers University's New Jersey College for Women, patriotic third-year students cheerfully substituted hastily arranged old-fashioned barn dance for thrilling formal event every co-ed eagerly looks forward to from moment she enters college.

Red barn painted on huge canvas hung at one end of Jameson Hall on campus, provided authentic background for barnyard atmosphere. Heightening bucolic effect were real wagon wheels, harness, feedbags, hay, two live chickens, contributed by affiliated Rutgers Agricultural College.

Girls in brightly colored gingham, prints and pinafores, wearing bonnets or bows in their hair, square-danced with straw-hatted, plaid-shirted, dungaree-clad dates to strains of Virginia Reel, Arkansas Traveler, Duck for the Oyster played by hill-billy band, which alternated folk music with modern swing rhythms.

Chairman of Dance Committee was Frances Daire, Henry Stover was caller.

New Jersey College for Women co-eds elected to forego annual Junior Show, customary culmination of Frolic Week, when it appeared that time necessary for preparation and rehearsals would necessitate cutting defense course classes, which were deemed too important to miss. Instead, committee arranged Barnyardin' party for juniors and their dates.

Broom-handle proves unmanageable partner and Jane Walker goes down in a heap. Bob Johnson interrupts dance with laughing Lee Purnell, goes gallantly to Jane's assistance.

Alvin Mancusi-Ungaro puts Partner Jeanne Reimer "up-and-down-and-ladies-under," in response to call by Hank Stover. In between square dances band played swing music.

BARNWARMIN' (Concl'd)

Irrepressible Jeanne gets aboard her professed horse, pretends she's herd-riding cowgirl. Indulgent Alvin watches her "tear down strich." Authentic farm props were obtained from University's agricultural department, but synthetic boosin was furnished by Committee on Decorative for purposes of atmosphere, not for horsemanship.

Jeanne insists on testing authenticity of decorative farm and field gear. Below, she climbs into hayrack set aside for spectators, with helping hand from Alvin, who climbed up before her.

She's not (very) squeamish about handling live chicken. Bob Menzel tries to appear nonchalant as one he's holding flaps wildly in heroic but vain effort to escape.

wagon-wheel, where she perches precariously while photographer gets engaging shot of her sharing apple with obliging Escort Alvin Mancusi-Ungaro. Formal Junior Prom took place on the previous evening.

University of Cincinnati's pretty Household Arts Senior Mary Cortright tests temperature of water before dunking herself in spacious pool, finds it to her liking. Popular campus beauty, she was elected band sponsor last year, wielded baton between halves of football games.

Highlight of University of Cincinnati's annual Playday, to which came women students from colleges located in Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky, was water ballet presented by U. of C.'s Pen-

COLLEGIATE MIXER STIRS UP CO-ED RIVALRY NICE POOL WHETS COMPETITIVE INSTINCTS

TO foster closer relations and better understanding, promote friendly rivalry among girls of various mid-west colleges, University of Cincinnati co-eds annually invite to campus for a day of social and athletic recreation, representative groups of female undergraduates from schools throughout states of Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky.

This year, more than 350 women students, among them numerous feminine athletic stars, members of their alma mater's women's varsity teams, accepted bids to Cincy's get-together.

Fair arrivals found tastefully prepared lunch awaiting them, during which they became acquainted with each other, warmed up to occasion.

After lunch, bugle announced start of "play period." Girls quickly changed into playsuits and swimsuits, assembled at designated places on campus for rounds of volleyball, basketball, table tennis, badminton, shuffleboard, fencing and swimming.

Games had been arranged merely as outlets for exuberant spirits, with no thought of actual competition. But what began, innocently enough, as exhibition by Cincy's Penguin Club water ballet squad, shortly developed into hotly contested aquatic match between divers and swimmers of rival schools.

Balcony seats were at a premium as all other activities ceased and visitors crowded into pool to watch contest.

guin Club. At conclusion of each picturesque formation, girls broke up and dove into water. Spectacular routine is one performed by girls in luminous tank-suits, which glow in darkness.

Miami University's Betty Bachman (left) and University of Cincinnati's Wilma Tseiler use electrically-operated hair dryer in locker-room of Cincy's splendidly equipped gym. Wilma won sidestroke event from Betty in uncarded race.

Unexpected excitement in pool, when mermaids staged impromptu swimming meet, attracted large gallery. Below,

Marletta College's Betty McKinney won first place in diving exhibition. Despite keenness of competition, Playday was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone, and thrilling day ended with dinner in grill.

ARCHERY-FISHING ARCHES ANGLERS' EYEBROWS

CO-EDS SHOOT ARROWS AT FISH WITH BATED BREATH

POET IZAAK WALTON undoubtedly considered himself the "Compleat Angler," and presumably he was, in his day. For time was when a can of worms, nickel hook tied to bamboo pole, sinker and cord constituted adequate equipment for a day's fishing.

Nowadays, the fresh-water fisherman goes after trout with hat-band full of expensive flies, chooses between Dolly Varden and Coachman, lands fish with costly net or trimly-fashioned gaff. For marlin or tuna, he requires a fitted pole with woven line, tooled leader and finely-machined hooks, casts from after-deck of luxuriously appointed launch.

But it remained for U. S. college girls to invent the radically new and novel sport of fish-hunting with bow and arrow (practically only equipment required, except for underwater diving goggles to rescue arrows driven into stream's bed).

Of course, one needs to be more or less of an archer to succeed in spearing elusive mullets, which swim close to surface. Accompanying photos may give you some idea of how you, too, can enjoy sport.

Kay demonstrates proper archery-fishing form: bow parallel with body, which forms right angle with arrow, before release. Leather wrist-guard protects inside of forearm from friction of speeding arrow, about to disappear into the water at lower left.

Jean threads own arrow. Archery-fishing is not too difficult a sport for expert archers to learn. Slightest body motion or shadow falling on water's surface will frighten away quarry.

Ravenously hungry after hours of fish-hunting, modern Dianas repair to shady spot nearby, where they lay aside bows, arrows and helmets. Day's haul of two fairly large mullets is placed in pan over hastily-built fire, and girls prepare to enjoy old-fashioned fish fry. Mulletts are edible fresh-water fish found in warm climates, are usually greenish or copper-colored.

Jean spots unwary mullet three inches below surface but, unprepared to take advantage of situation, excitedly points out prey to Kay, who takes careful aim, steadying herself on bench.

Hunter (N. Y.) College's nineteen-year-old Florence Fitzgerald illustrates on this and following page Judo technique for handling attacker who begins by getting tight grasp on her hair.

Quick as a flash, Florence gets grip on his shirt or coat, places right foot in groin, pulls him toward her. At same time, she bends her left knee, and leans backward.

HUNTER COLLEGIAN BAGS BIG BAD WOLF

COLLEGE GIRLS PRACTISE JUDO TO GIVE MASHERS THE AIR AND KEEP 'EM FLYING

DISTURBING reports from nation's capital reveal that female office-secretaries and assistants, homeward bound from late assignments, are frequently accosted and, in one or two instances, attacked by sex-crazed thugs. Deploable situation has led college women, other prospective young girl war workers to add instruction in Judo, or Jiu-jitsu, to courses preparing them for various types of defense work.

Self-defense against mashers for women on their own is capably and quickly taught to constantly increasing numbers of New York college students by Manhattan's Academy of Jiu-jitsu's Paul Zippel. Zippel, in the accompanying pictures, "leads with his chin," gives apt pupil, Hunter Collegian Florence Fitzgerald, opportunity to display her skill in repelling typical advances from would-be masher.

By fitting coincidence, Japanese, who are responsible for current necessity for working knowledge of the art, invented Jiu-jitsu. Skillful and timely application of principles enables slightly-built victim of sudden assault to throw an opponent of more powerful physique. Logical explanation of Judo's effectiveness lies in dextrous execution of simple maneuvers by person attacked, paradoxically forcing assailant to use his strength to own disadvantage. Attacker must be calm.

She drops to floor, pulling assailant with her, straightens right leg as she falls. Leverage throws him forward and over her head, aided by extra push with toes, at end of arc. He lands heavily, fight knocked out of him. Often he becomes unconscious.

CO-ED CHORINES ARE IN LINE FOR ADVANCEMENT

IN a season filled with disappointment for theatrical oldsters, the younger generation is experiencing more widespread recognition of its acting talents than it has enjoyed in many a year. But we defy anyone to find the slightest causal relation between the phenomena.

Fact is, currently successful shows, dramatic as well as musical, boast entire casts composed of youngsters in their early twenties. Among them are pretty co-eds from colleges and universities throughout the U.S.

This year's chief collegiate contribution to the theatre is Howard (Ala.) College's pretty 21-year-old Mary Anderson, subject of uncommonly bitter dramaticcritical dispute. Mary's controversially-received portrayal of the poisonous Guest in the House, is her first Broadway role, gives promise of brilliant future.

Charmingly represented by bevy of glamorous showgirls pictured on these pages are New York's Columbia, Cornell and Hunter, Missouri's University of St. Louis and Stephens College, University of Michigan, Oklahoma College for Women, and U.C.L.A. They sing, dance, otherwise ornament musical revues like Bonjo Eyes, Sons O' Fun, and Let's Face It, acknowledged hits.

Dreamy-eyed Marjorie Young, Bonjo Eyes chorine, graduated from Missouri's Stephens College, where she studied drama under venerable Maude Adams.

Another Bonjo Eyes
beauty is Doris Dowling, 1940 graduate of New York's Hunter College, where she majored in English literature and dramatics. Here, she limbers up backstage before curtain time at Hollywood Theatre in New York.

Zanies Olson and Johnson picked lovely Georgia Francis, who received degree from Cornell University in 1940, as one of the Sons O' Fun showgirls. As undergraduate on Ithaca campus, she majored in dramatics.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY QUEEN

Sirs: Mary Lee Winters, co-senior 20-year-old sophomore at the University of Oklahoma, was picked as Engineers St. Patrick's Day Queen, and crowned in the style of old Erin. She's a Kappa Alpha Theta.

Mary Lee was chosen by the Engineers out of five contestants for the honor, was guarded both day and night by several husky Engineers to protect her from the traditional, attempted kidnapping by University's lawyers. (At this time she has not been kidnapped, and it is assumed that she will not be, as the school administration has already expelled three students for creating a disturbance on the campus.)

WAR RATIONING SEALS UNKNOWN WAXERS' OUTLET

DUPLICATE NEEDLING IS DEEMED NEEDLESS BY WPB

By PAT BALLARD

C'EST LA GUERRE

SINCE our last get-together, Uncle Sam has spoken for 70 per cent of the resin and other materials needed for waxworks. While this figure eventually may be modified, you'll be hearing only carefully selected tunes by just as meticulously selected bands, from now on.

In the good old days (before Pearl Harbor), a hit tune was needed by at least a half dozen bands on as many record labels. Now, boys-who-have-the-say who discover another Chattanooga Choo-Choo will hand it to just one leader for recording. This will be tough on unknowns, but then the business has always been tough for unknowns.

NO WORRY FOR BEST SELLERS

Ace recording outfits, such as Sammy Kaye, Jimmy Dorsey, Tommy Dorsey, Glen Miller and a half dozen others, needn't lose sleep over record curtailment. Demand for their whizzarounds will always be great. Only second-raters will get the axe; which is sad, because most first-raters were once second-raters. But for the duration, few new bandstars will ascend to dizzy heights, and you'll just have to be contented with the old favorites.

FOOT-WARMERS

Juke boxes will take the rap along with everything else, in the record shortage. But there are still plenty of 'em in operation, and the following players seem slated for summer success:

Woody Herman (Decca 4293) has done a slick job on Too Late and Fort Worth Jail. The Woodchoppers (Elite 5020). It's nice to have Bunny back with its. Slylark, Hokey Carmichael's most outstanding instrumental song since Star dust, has also been recorded by Glen Miller (Bluebird 11462), Dinah Shore (Bluebird 11473) and Harry James (Columbia 26533).

Hottest thing on the summer scene will be Jersey Bounce, especially as recorded by Benny Goodman on Okeh 6590. This tune bids fair to become another Choo-choo.

Tommy-the-Dorsey cut The Last Call for Love and Poor You for Victor (No. 27849), and it's a honey—both sides.

Records to watch in the selling sweepstakes are Tangerine by J. Dorsey (Decca 4123), Fred Waring's Buckle Down Wascokie (Decca 18275) backed by Moonlight on the Campus, and How About You, waxed by both T. Dorsey (Victor 27749) and Eddie-the-Duch, Columbia 36501—awell tune!

DORSEY CHANGES HIS MIND

No sooner had press releases been issued regarding the MGM-Dorsey record merger, than war conditions caused Tommy-the-Dorsey to do a turnaround back to Victor, his old alma mammy. Tommy will continue to record for Victor, picking top tunes and getting top money. MGM wisely decided now wasn't the best time to go into the recording business.

THE BANDSMEN

Duke Ellington increased his popularity at the Trianon Ballroom in California, while Tommy Tucker set the world on fire at the Essex House in N. Y. Freddie Martin made a quick click, and is going great guns at the Waldorf-Astoria. Leo Reisman, up and down the last few years, is well-established in the Rainbow Room at Rockefeller Center. Charlie Spivak will preside at the Pennsylvania, N. Y., this summer, which means the jitterbugs will be amply supplied with generous helpings of ants for their pants by the top-tooting master of the hot trumpet.

All in all, summer will be full of jive, because now more than ever cash customers are demanding escapist music—loud, fast, and hot!

"Favorite Date" of First Infantry Training Regiment at Camp Wheeler, Ga., is NBC's diminutive Mary Ann Mercer, singing star of Uncle Walter's Dog House.

WATCH THESE!

Hit Parade possibilities are the following newbies: Tout No Good, Sometimes, Snoopy Little Cutie, So Long Sweetheart, On Echo Hill and A Shady Lane, the lyric of which will soothe anybody's jittered nerves—here it is:

"Trade your troubles for a shady lane
Beside a lazy pool.

Take your worries where it's safe and sane,

With breezes blowin' cool.

Let your teardrops hear a robin song;
Tho' it's not for long, you'll smile.

Trade your cup of gloom

For daffodils in bloom

And life will be worthwhile!

NOD DEPT.

Saluting the orchestra world's near-grat, we pin gardenias on Eddie Varxos in Rhode Island, Mousie Powell in Pittsburgh, Don Ferrara, Ohio fave, Hal Munro, Alabama maestro, Jimmy Robinson, Pennsylvania, Eddy Morgan, Atlantic City, Jimmy Leonard, also of Pennsylvania, and Roxy Reif, another Keystone. Best wishes for continued popularity!

NEW JOB

Don Bryan, former ace trumpeter of Fred Waring's gang, is WMCA's new musical director. Don proved his versatility by (a) jumping from Ben Bernie's band to Toscanini's symphony orchestra; (b) conducting pit orchestras in Broadway musical comedies; (c) conducting the famous Telephone Hour on the airways. He's revolutionizing the small "house band" policy by hiring only the best musicians, concentrating on superlative dancipation in the deep-south manner.

So long 'til soon!

—Pat.

America's Secret Weapon

You won't find it on the production lines at Rock Island or Willow Run.

It isn't guarded at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, or tested at Aberdeen.

But it's the toughest weapon these men you are looking at will ever take into battle. It's the stuff with which all our wars are won.

The boy in the uniform doesn't call it morale. That's a cold potatoes word for something John American feels deep and warm inside.

Perhaps he can't give it a name. But he can tell you what it's made of.

It's made of the thrill he gets when his troop train stops at a junction point and fifty good-looking girls are at the station with cigarettes.

It's made of the appreciation he feels for a bright new USO clubhouse where he and his friends can go for a few hours' rest and relaxation.

It's made of laughter and music—when Bob Hope or Lana Turner visits his camp with a USO show.

It's made of his invitations to the homes of pleasant strangers.

It's even made of a cup of coffee and a Yankee smile—at some lone outpost in Iceland or Alaska.

Maybe it's just a feeling of kinship with this land of a hundred million generous people. Maybe it's just the understanding that this whole country cares; that the soldier is bone of our bone; that he and we are one.

Name it if you can. But it's the secret weapon of a democratic army—a weapon that can never be ersatzed in Germany or Japan.

What can you do to sharpen this weapon? Give to the USO. This great national service organization that overrides race and creed has been entrusted by your government with responsibility for the service man's leisure needs. With maintaining clubhouses and providing camp shows, with a hundred thoughtful services to our men at home and abroad.

The needs of USO have grown as enormously as our armed forces themselves. This Spring we must have $32,000,000.

Give all you can—whether it's a lot or a little.

Send your contribution to your local chairman or to USO, Empire State Building, New York City.
